Document: Information treated as a unit of information.

Record: Recorded information created or received by AITC that provides evidence of business activities and affairs, regardless of format.

Record Management System: Information system used to capture and provide access to records.

Retention: The period a record should be retained by the institution before final disposal. It may also indicate when records should be transferred to secondary storage or Archived.

Sentence: Identifying and classifying a record according to a Disposal Schedule.

4. Procedures

4.1 Responsibilities

- 4.1.1 The CEO is responsible for ensuring that all record management legislative requirements are met.
- 4.1.2 The designated Records Officer is responsible for records management at the operational level, ensuring the implementation of this policy.
- 4.1.3 Section Managers will be delegated record management responsibilities, accountable to the Records Officer.
- 4.1.4 Section Managers Overview

Records Area	Section Manager Responsible
Student Records.	Registrar.
Financial Records.	Account Manager.
Staff & Payroll Records.	CEO.
Curriculum Records.	Academic Dean.
Legal & Contracts.	CEO.
Library.	Librarian.

4.1.5 All staff are responsible for creating appropriate and accurate records of the business activities and affairs of AITC that align with their position responsibilities.

4.2 Training

All staff will receive records management training as part of their orientation.

4.3 Auditing

Phone: 02 9211 4958

AITC will conduct regular audits of records management activities. This is to ensure that records are being created and maintained correctly and that accurate records of AITC's business activities and affairs are captured in the records management system.

4.4 Creation of Records

- 4.4.1 Records should be added to the records keeping system at the time of creation or receipt of a document.
- 4.4.2 Wherever possible, records should be held in electronic format.
- 4.4.3 All records are labelled according to the Version Control as follows:

Version Number	Purpose/Change
0.1, 0.2, 0.3	Draft versions
1.0	First finalised version – the document has often been issued for consultation
1.1, 1.2, 1.3 	Subsequent amendments to the first 'issued' version. These changes are often the result of consultation
2.0	It indicates a major revamp.
And so on

Version control could be achieved by adding the version number at the end of a file title, and by displaying the version number at the modification history within the document.

- 4.4.4 If possible, all records at the time of creation should incorporate a date in accordance with the appropriate disposal schedule.
- 4.4.5 There is a repository of publicly-available current information at AITC's website about the higher education provider's operations that includes:
 - a) The registered name of the higher education provider, trading name(s) if different, regulatory status and authority to provide courses of study to international students studying on an Australian student visa.
 - b) The instrument establishing the entity.
 - c) The members of the governing body and senior executive.
 - d) The financial standing of the provider.
 - e) A high-level organisational chart that includes the organisational units that deliver courses of study, such as schools or faculties.
 - f) An overview of teaching campuses, facilities, learning resources and services provided for students.
 - g) A list of all higher education courses of study that are offered, including admissions information.
 - h) Arrangements with other parties to deliver courses of study or to conduct research training.
- 4.4.6 The list of all higher education courses of study (see 4.4.5g) within the repository of information includes:
 - a) The accreditation status of each course of study.
 - b) The qualification(s) offered.
