

Student Representation on the Academic Board

Nominations Form

Elections

AITC conducts Elections for Student Representation on Academic Board in accordance with the AITC's Student Representative Eligibility, Nominations and Elections Guideline.

AITC will hold an Election to fill Student Representation on the Academic Board when a position becomes vacant or a vacancy is due to occur when the current incumbent's term of office expires.

Timeframe

To fill a vacancy, other than a casual vacancy, AITC will open elections no sooner than 4 months and no later than 1 month before the current incumbent's term of office is due to expire. To fill a casual vacancy, AITC will open elections as soon as practicable before or after the casual vacancy occurs.

Nominations

After a call for nominations, if more than one valid nomination is received, AITC students will hold a vote. Students can submit this form in order to nominate themselves or a fellow student.
